

European and American Television Cameras

	Make	Westel
	Model	WRC-150
	Country	USA
	Camera Type : Monochrome handheld portable
	Camera Description : Small camera for use with broadcast quality portable recorder system.

Data

Tube details 25mm Vidicon.
Lens details C Mount Zoom
Sig. to Noise
Sensitivity
Resolution
Viewfinder 1.25" monocular
Camera cable To VTR
Power supply 12V. DC from VTR

Data

Line standards 525/60
Colour standards Monochrome
Drives or locking From VTR
Weight * 7 pounds without lens
Colours
Dimensions * 6.5H x 4W x 10.5L inches
Date introduced 1966 catalogue date

*Excluding Lens & Viewfinder

Associated equipment

Portable 1" reel to reel VTR recorder using proprietary "Coniscan" system.

Features

General description

References

Product Brochure

Photo Reference

Innovations

The viewfinder has electrostatic deflection and can be used as a waveform monitor.

History

Notes

Westel Company. Redwood City. California. The camera was offered for $3,000 or $10,500 for the complete system in 1966.

The camera with the backpack recorder